

◎ Important Note

The new "Regulations Regarding International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan" issued by the Ministry of Education is effective starting February 1st, 2011. The following are updates to the admission prospectus:

● Applicant Eligibility (update to page 6 of the prospectus)

Anyone not fitting into one of the following categories is eligible to apply as an international student: citizens of the R.O.C., citizens of Hong Kong, Macau, or the People's Republic of China, as well as those who have previously studied in Taiwan as an overseas Chinese.

If the applicant holds dual nationalities and is a citizen of the R.O.C. as defined in Article 2 of the Nationality Law, please see Article 2 of "Regulations Regarding International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan" at

<http://law.moj.gov.tw/LawClass/LawAll.aspx?PCode=H0110001>

● Required documents and Materials (update to page 8 of the prospectus)

#6 Please provide two original copies of the applicant's highest diploma (in English or Chinese) by one of the following two methods:

- having the diploma authenticated by an ROC representative office in the country where the document is issued.
- having the diploma mailed to NTNU directly from the issuing institution. The diploma must be in a sealed, official envelope from the issuing institution and bear the institution's official seal.

#7 Please provide two official copies of all original transcripts (in English or Chinese) from the institution which issued the applicant's highest diploma (transcripts must show grades for every semester of study at that institution) by one of the following two methods:

- having the transcripts authenticated by an ROC representative office in the country where the document is issued.
- having the transcripts mailed to NTNU directly from the issuing institution. The transcripts must be in a sealed, official envelope from the issuing institution and bear the institution's official seal.

#8 A financial Statement: Please select one of the following methods of proof:

- One photocopy of a financial statement issued by a financial institution within the past three months. The statement must be on the financial institution's official letterhead and mailed to NTNU in an official, sealed envelope.
- One photocopy of an authenticated financial statement issued within the past three months. The authentication must be done by the ROC representative office in the country of the institution which issued the financial statement.

- One photocopy of a financial statement issued by a financial institution in Taiwan within the past three months.
- If the financial statement provided is not in the applicant's name, a financial guarantee is also required from the sponsor. Financial statements issued outside of Taiwan must be authenticated by an ROC representative office in the country of the institution which issued the statement.
- Proof of scholarship.

Please note: If the applicant is accepted by the university and applies for a visa, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs may require that the accepted applicant provide authenticated copies of any related transcripts and diplomas. Each document must be authenticated by an ROC representative office in the country where the document is issued. Documents received by the university directly from the issuing institution will not be returned.