I : Applicant Eligibility

Anyone not fitting into one of the following categories is eligible to apply as an international student: citizens of the R.O.C. as defined in Article 2 of the Nationality Law, citizens of Hong Kong, Macau, and the People's Republic of China, as well as those who have previously studied in Taiwan as an overseas Chinese.

Prerequisite:
1. For admission to Bachelor Programs: Senior High School diploma.
2. For admission to Master's Programs: Bachelor's degree.
3. For admission to Doctoral Programs: Master's degree.

Note 1
According to Article 2 of the Nationality Law, a person who meets one of the following requirements acquires the nationality of the Republic of China:

A. A person whose father or mother was, at the time of his/her birth, a citizen of the Republic of China.
B. A person born after the death of his/her father or mother, and whose parent was, at the time of death, a citizen of the Republic of China.
C. A person born in the territory of the Republic of China and whose parents are both unknown or are stateless.
D. A naturalized citizen.

* An individual born on or before February 9th, 1980 needs only consider the nationality of his or her father.

Note 2
Article 23 of the Regulations Regarding Overseas Chinese Returning for Studies and Relevant Counseling Service Provided stated, if an overseas Chinese student who was dismissed from any university/college, who graduate from university/college, or whose applied period of suspension of studies expires and does not continue his/her study in Taiwan, his/her identity of being an overseas Chinese shall be terminated. For the overseas Chinese whose identity is terminated, his/her identity of being an overseas Chinese can be restored after he/she continues the study to next level of education, transfers to another university/college, or resumes the study in the originally-admitted university/college. According to Article 23, a person who meets one of the following requirements acquires the identity of an overseas Chinese, and is disqualified to apply through the 'Admission for International Students':

A. A person who previously studied in the Division of Preparatory Programs for Overseas Chinese Students at National Taiwan Normal University (formerly called ‘National University of Preparatory School for Overseas Chinese Students’).
B. A person who has applied for studies or previously studied in any school in Taiwan as an overseas Chinese.
C. A person who has taken the university entrance exam for overseas Chinese students held by the 'University Entrance Committee For Overseas Chinese Student', has filled out the choices of university/college and has been admitted to one of the universities/colleges.

Note 3
Due to the different education system in each country, an applicant who will graduate at the same year as the admission to National Taiwan Normal University must ensure to receive his/her diploma and academic transcript of the highest academic degree and finish the authentication procedure by the ROC representative office in the country of the institution which issued the diploma/transcript by the following deadlines. Only applicants who can strictly follow this requirement are qualified to apply.

Note 4
An applicant who meets one of the following requirements is ineligible to apply through the ‘Admission for International Students’:

A. A person who acquires the nationality of the Republic of China (according to Article 2 of the Nationality Law).
B. A person who acquired the nationality of the Republic of China and has renounced the nationality of the Republic of China under the approval by the Ministry of the Interior for less than 8 years up until the beginning date of the term applied.
C. A person who has applied and finished the study in any senior high school in the Republic of China as an international student, and would like to pursue a further degree.
D. A person who was dismissed from any university/college in the Republic of China.
E. A person who has applied to or studied in any institution in the Republic of China as an overseas Chinese.
F. A person who acquires the nationality of Hong Kong, Macau, or the People's Republic of China.

   * Unless otherwise specified, application documents submitted shall not be returned.

5. Miscellaneous
   1. The admission of international students to NTNU is conducted in compliance with "Regulations Regarding International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan” issued by the Ministry of Education on January 18, 2010.
   2. International students admitted to NTNU will have their admission revoked and be dismissed from NTNU if any following terms are violated:
      ① Students who do not possess ROC nationality may apply for admission to NTNU either as an overseas Chinese or as an international student, but NOT in both.
      ② Ex-ROC citizens may not apply for admission to an ROC college or university as an international student within eight years of their ROC nationality being revoked.
      ③ International students who are admitted to a ROC college or university but are later dismissed by the college or university may not seek admission to another program of study in the same capacity.
② Any NTNU student who is currently studying (including those who suspend their studies) or whose admission status is extended may not apply for admission to the same program of study in the same department/institute. Once the case is verified, the admission of the international student admitted to NTNU shall be revoked, and the vacancy thus created will be filled in the order of the names as they appear on the waiting list.

③ Applicants must take any written exams, interviews, and/or technical tests required by the department or institute to which they are applying. A passport or other form of picture identification must be presented at the test.

④ Diplomas and transcripts issued by schools overseas are subject to review in accordance with the Ministry of Education’s Regulations Regarding the Assessment and Recognition of Foreign Academic Credentials for Institutions of Higher Education.

⑤ Students should possess basic skills in Chinese or English. When required by the related department or graduate institute, applicants must take the Test of Proficiency-Huayu (held by Steering Committee for the Test of Proficiency-Huayu). Those who fail to pass the proficiency level set by their department/institute shall be required to take Chinese language courses as necessary.

⑥ Students who have completed the application process are not allowed to change the programs.

⑦ Students admitted to NTNU must fulfill the language requirement set by the department/graduate institute of their study as part of the graduation requirements.

⑧ Students admitted to bachelor programs must take the course of “Service Learning” as ruled as part of the graduation requirements.

⑨ If any application materials are found at any time to contain inaccurate, false, or fraudulent information, inauthentic documents or do not meet admission requirements, the student in question shall have their admission to NTNU revoked and be dismissed from the university. Students who have already graduated will have their diploma revoked.

V : Rules governing admission

1. The final list of admitted students will be decided by the Admissions Committee. A number of probationally admitted students may be put on the waiting list in case any admitted students fail to complete registration procedures.

2. Individual departments/institutes may choose not to admit students to their full capacity. In such a case, no applicant will be probationally admitted.

VI : Admission Announcements

1. Enrollment lists for different terms will be posted online on the following dates.
   The information is also obtainable at: Tel.: 886-2-77341274 Website: http://ap.itc.ntnu.edu.tw/istudent/apply/

2. Admitted students will receive notification through express registered mail.

VII : Registration

1. Admitted students are required to submit the New Student Confirmation Form to the Admissions Committee online before the appropriate deadline. The web address for on-line confirmation form will be noted in the Admission notification. Students failing to complete the New Student Confirmation Form will be regarded as having voluntarily forfeited their admission status. Vacancies resulting from students who have forfeited their admission status will be filled in the order of the names as they appear on the waiting list. Students wanting to retain their position on the waiting list must complete the “Waiting list confirmation” procedure on-line before the deadline as outlined in the notification letter or waiting list eligibility will be forfeit. Students on the waiting list who are admitted to the university will receive an additional notification letter and need to complete registration procedures before the closing date for registration, which is the first day of class of the current academic year as specified by the annual school calendar. Students who fail to register by the closing date forfeit their admission to the university.

2. Admitted students who have completed the on-line New Student Confirmation Form must also register by the proper deadline to avoid having their admission status revoked in accordance with the Admission notification regulations for confirmation and registry procedures. Documents required for registration include a copy of the student's passport, and the original of Chinese or English translation of school transcripts and diploma authenticated by the proper ROC representative office in the country of the document's origin or the student's admission status will be revoked. Those who have not had their documents authenticated by the application deadline must present the authenticated documents to the Office of International Affairs within one month of admission results being announced, or the student's admission status will be revoked. Applicants graduating at the end of the current academic year must have their documents reviewed by the Office of International Affairs before registration or the student's admission status will be revoked.

3. Admitted students must provide proof of medical and personal accidental insurance from their home country valid from entering into the ROC and up to at least four months upon enrollment in accordance with Article 21 of the "MOE Regulations Regarding International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan". Students already insured by the ROC's national health insurance must also provide proof of insurance. The above-mentioned insurance papers issued outside ROC should be verified by ROC representative offices in the country of issuance.

4. The closing date for registration is the first day of class as specified by the annual school calendar. Failing to register by the closing date will be viewed as a voluntary forfeiture of admission status. Admitted students who are unable to register by the registration deadline and would like to extend their admission status to the following academic year must apply for the extension with the Registry Division Office of Academic Affairs at either the main campus (contact phone number 886-2-77341095) or at the Gong-guan campus (contact phone number 886-2-77346549) before the first day of class of the original semester in which the student was to commence their studies. Please note that not all departments/graduate institutes allow the extention of admission status. (Please refer to respective remarks of the department/graduate institute in this prospectus.) Students whose application for admission status extention are approved by the university may begin procedures for entering the university the following academic year in accordance with the rules and regulations that apply to all new students for that year.

5. When required by the department/graduate institute, admitted students must register with the Steering Committee for the Test of Proficiency-Huayu on their own to take the “Test of Proficiency-Huayu” which is administered regularly on the first Saturday of May and November each year. Test takers need to pay for the test. Please go to TOP website (http://www.sc-top.org.tw) for registration period and more details.

6. Transfer credits from other colleges/universities will be governed by the related regulations of this University.

VIII : Miscellaneous

1. For any appeals to the admission procedure, applicants may submit a written statement to the Office of International Affairs within 15 days of the admissions results announcement. Anonymous appeals shall not be processed.
2. Issues not covered in these guidelines are either prescribed in the “Admission Regulations for International Students of NTNU” or left to the discretion of the NTNU Admissions Committee.
